14
15 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, BY AND BETWEEN Daniel G.
16 Bogden, United States Attorney, by and through Cristina D. Silva, Assistant United States
17 Attorney, and Defendant JEFFREY COCHRAN, by and through his counsel of record, MACE J.
18 YAMPOLSKY, ESQ. and JASON R. MARGOLIS, ESQ., of the law firm of MACE J.
19 YAPOLSKY, LTD., that:

- 20 1. Defendant JEFFREY COCHRAN's conditions of pre-trial release and supervision be 21 modified so that he may travel outside the District of Nevada on a monthly basis,
22 pursuant to a 30/30 schedule, that is 30 days in the District of Nevada, and 30 days
23 outside the District of Nevada, beginning on November 1, 2016, in accordance with 24 his responsibilities with his employer Wholesale Inventory Network.
25
26 2. While outside the jurisdiction of the District of Nevada, Defendant JEFFREY
27 COCHRAN will be in constant communication with his Pretrial Services Officer
28

Donnette Johnson on a daily basis and will be available via telephone and/or email throughout these periods of time.

3. While working the 30/30 schedule with Wholesale Inventory Network, Defendant JEFFREY COCHRAN will be outside the jurisdiction of the District of Nevada for 30 days at a time, such that if he begins work outside the District of Nevada on November 1, 2016, he will return to the District of Nevada for the period of December 1, 2016, through December 31, 2016, and continue his employment on this basis going forward into 2017.
4. Defendant JEFFREY COCHRAN will continue to be subject to any and all other terms and conditions pertaining to his pretrial release aside from his permitted travel for his employer Wholesale Inventory Network.
5. United States Pretrial Services Officer Donnette Johnson and Assistant United States Attorney Cristina Silva for the District of Nevada are aware of and have no opposition to this limited modification of Defendant JEFFREY COCHRAN's pretrial supervision travel restrictions.

DATED this 26th day of October, 2016.
